

TCDS Co-President – Ishani Ranjan

Hello, Trinity! I'm Ishani Ranjan, and I'm running for TCDS Co-President!

The TCDS was the first Trinity club I joined, thanks to my passion for all things theatre. Here I met some of the kindest people I know, and found a place to enjoy myself without inhibitions. Volunteering for front of house crews, joining the TCDS executive as Front of House Manager in my second year, working with the Hart House box office, and stage managing the TCDS' award-winning 2017 Drama Festival show taught me all the aspects of how the TCDS functions, and how we work with Hart House and the Drama Coalition. I want to continue working with the TCDS in my third year and take it to even greater heights, while maintaining its identity as a place for anyone and everyone to share their love of theatre.

I aim to make involvement easier for students who are new to the TCDS. The outgoing co-presidents established a wonderful mentorship program, which I will expand to allow for more mentees, opportunities, and theatre workshops. Furthermore, I will work with the executive to increase the diversity of the TCDS' shows, to better represent and connect with the Trinity community. Lastly, I aim to strengthen the TCDS' relations with other drama societies, to improve inter-college relations and allow greater publicity of our shows.

I would love to lead the TCDS on the next step of its journey, and I thank you for giving me the chance.

(Exits stage left),
Ishani Ranjan