

Avneet Sharma for House Leader

Members of College,

My name is Avneet Sharma and I am running for the position of House Leader of the Trinity College Literary Institute. Ever since I stood in the JCR reading out NC-17 One Direction fan fiction I wrote in the ninth grade, I knew that the TCLI was the right place for me within the Trinity community. Since then, I have been an avid debater, attendee, and Mace-Keeper.

As House Leader, I can ensure that the TCLI will consistently be a venue for quality debate. I can ensure that the TCLI will consistently host debaters who are:

- a) inspiring
- b) hilarious
- c) a little bit fucked up.

Otherwise, I'll speak, which should be sufficient since I am at least two of these things.

My experience networking with alumni (for The Alumni Debate!) include having a conversation with distinguished Trinity College alumni and Academy Award Nominee® Atom Egoyan. He told me to follow my dreams, and my dreams include serving as your House Leader next year.

Feros cultus voce formare,

Avneet Sharma
