

Lukas Weese—Male Head of Arts

Members of Trinity College,

A Head of Arts has a multi-faceted, important role at the College. First and foremost, he must develop and sustain the vibrant sense of community that brought so many of us to Trinity in the first place, making sure we appeal to ALL groups of individuals. Second, the social events must be MEMORABLE, whether it is a gathering to watch our beloved Toronto sports teams or a LIVE rez party. Finally, it is vital for the Head of Arts to play an active role in Trinity governance; ensuring that the community raises awareness about issues affecting the student body.

Dedication. Enthusiasm. Positivity. Three words that DRIVE the extracurricular life at the College. From pumping up the 1T9's at Frosh Week to helping organize an UNFORGETTABLE Conversat, I have poured my PASSION and SOUL into Trinity College life, determined to make every single Member around me feel inclusive and jazzed about life. I have also dedicated my time to giving back to the community, demonstrated with my involvement as Director of Marketing and Awareness in broader U of T clubs like Enactus and Partners in Health.

Friends, I have the distinct pleasure of introducing my ~~~TRIPLE AAA PLATFORM~~~ centered around Accessibility, Advocacy and Alacrity. I will commit to making Massey a safe space for everyone, ensuring that the Common Room has the tools to make it Accessible for all residents/non-residents, local/international students and drinkers/non-drinkers. As Head of Arts, I hope to collaborate with Trinity Advocacy groups, like TASA or the TCES, to raise awareness about key issues pertaining to Members of College and the broader U of T community. I plan to use my experience with the TCMHI to engage representatives from other Colleges in order to further reduce the stigma surrounding mental illness. Finally, get ready for LOTS of events that increase the energy and Alacrity of the College. From MANY Massey parties to networking opportunities for students to connect with alumni, I aim to sustain a keenness for enhanced community engagement.

Trinity, today is a HUGGGEEEEEE DAY for Student Governance. Let's build a community that not only serves the PRESENT, but also FUTURE, students. Let's create a place where NO MEMBER IS LEFT BEHIND. Get out the SALAMI & CHEESE, because this DISCUSSION HAS BEGUN.

Feel free to Facebook message me or email me at l.weese@mail.utoronto.ca if you have any questions.

Met'Agona Stephanos,

Lukas Weese 1T8
