

Members of College,
The Lit is in a pretty good spot. It's being run competently. People who attend typically have fun. A continuation of these two things is what I promise: no more, no less. Please find attached proof of my commitment to these values.

Enjoy this fun Where's Waldo™ game!

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet,
Harry

Look how competent I am in this photo!

lyr-an-ny /lɪrənny/

lyr-an-ny is a noun and adjective. It is used to describe a person who is very competent and efficient. It is also used to describe a person who is very organized and systematic. It is a very useful word in many contexts.

mi-cro-man-age
/mɪkroˈmænɪdʒ/

mi-cro-man-age is a verb. It means to manage something in a very detailed and systematic way. It is often used to describe the management of a small business or a specific project.

des-pot /dɛspəʊt/

des-pot is a noun. It refers to a person who exercises absolute power and authority over others. It is often used to describe a ruler or a leader who is very authoritarian and controlling.