

Ethan Raymond – Candidate for TCM Auditor

Trinity College, I'm asking you to trust me. I'm asking you to trust me to serve the best interests of every fee-paying student as your next TCM Auditor, and I believe I've earned that trust. I would like to demonstrate this by focusing on three aspects of my experience which I believe have prepared me for this role.

- I have served as treasurer to both levied and non-levied clubs, and feel that I know the bookkeeping methods employed at Trinity College well enough to carry out effective audits.
- I have sat on Finance Committee this past year as treasurer for the Trinity College Volunteer Society, and so have gained considerable insight into the governance structures in place at Trinity College and the Fiscal Policy under which clubs and the FC operate.
- In my work as a copy editor for the Salterrae and The Varsity, I have shown an attention to detail and commitment to punctuality that would serve well any successful candidate for TCM Auditor.

Each Trinity College student pays almost $120 per year to fund student societies (as per the 2016–2017 year <http://www.trinity.utoronto.ca/current/fees/trinity-college-tuition-and-incidental-fees.html>). If elected, I will seek to ensure — on your behalf — that this money is spent only in ways determined by the FC or TCM to be to the advantage of all Members of College.

If you would like to follow up on anything I have (or have not) said, feel free to email me at ethan.raymond@mail.utoronto.ca.

Sincerely,

Ethan Raymond
