

Ernest Leung & Lorraina Roth

Mace-Keepers of the Lit

mace¹

/mās/ ⓘ

noun

1. historical
a heavy club, typically having a metal head and spikes.
synonyms: club, cudgel, stick, staff, shillelagh, bludgeon, truncheon, nightstick, billy club, blackjack
"the thug wielded a mace"
2. a ceremonial staff of office.

Translations, word origin, and more definitions

keep·er

/ˈkēpər/ ⓘ

noun

1. a person who manages or looks after something or someone.
"I would not stop him—I'm his wife, not his keeper"
synonyms: guardian, custodian, curator, administrator, overseer, steward, caretaker
"Gregor is the keeper of the tennis courts and adjacent grounds"
2. a food or drink that remains in a specified condition if stored.
"hazelnuts are good keepers"

Translations, word origin, and more definitions

Apparently, this is a real mace and we should get one of these because this looks really cool...

HAHAHA!!

Not the right kind of keeper, but we're gonna do a lot of this, or at least try to next year! Also, if you didn't know, that's Ron, from Harry Potter, and he's cool too :)

Oh yeah, and this is us... what is our platform, you ask? Well, upholding the GREAT DEAL OF INTEGRITY that the Lit runs on,

1. While we're good at stealing stuff, we're good at keeping stuff too!
2. We promise to be lit at every Lit! I mean, why change what's not broken, right?
3. Jason's the new Speaker, so while other people try and throw beer bottle caps into his hat, we'll try and throw the mace into his hat!
4. ASDFGHJKL:"
5. Interpretive dances with the mace may or may not be happening. (May...)

